Building Memories Together

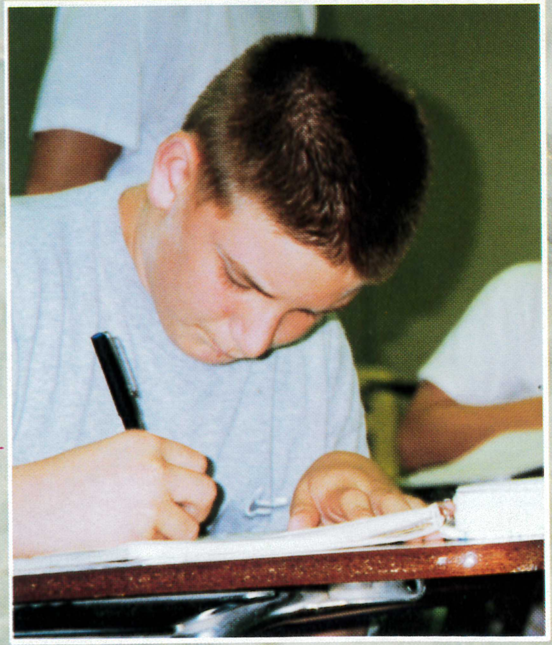
The 1997-1998 school year was definitely a year of growth for the Rock-A-Chaws! Together we experienced the building of . . .

. . . our school

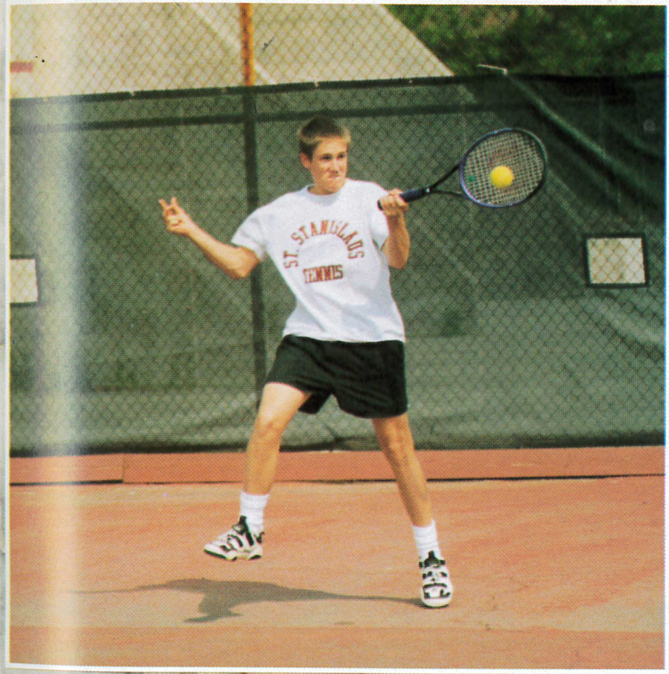
. . . our friendships

. . . our faith

. . . our schoolwork



. . . our endurance



. . . and our spirit!

The Jr. Varsity and Varsity Basketball athletes for 1997-98 included Brandon Arcement, Sean Barter, Damien Boggs, Deron Bond, Derek Bradley, Won Cho, Aaron Coates, Jamie Cuevas, Junior Davis, Zeke Davis, Hunter Dawkins, John Ellis, Paul Farve, Scott Floyd, Honore Hazeur, Claudio Iombo, David Kellum, Bernard Ladner, Brantley Ladner, Paul Ladner, David May, Dawson McCall, Tre Moses, Stephen Peterman, Micheal Prendergast,and Louis West. Mr. Jay Ladner coached the Rocks.

9th Grade Basketball athletes inlcuded Jesse Battle, Zach Butterworth, Cameron Byrne, John Carr, Evan Coote, Daniel Guy, Lee Howard, Mike Ryan, Jason Santiago, Jace Stokes, Grayson Timidaiski, and Grady Willis. The 9th grade team played under Coach Jay Ladner.

8th Grade Basketball athletes included Christian Baehr, Sean Benoit, Brian Butler, John Butterworth, Patrick May, Jeremy Richardson, Charles Seabolt, Tom Swaye, James Wilfert, and Charles Willis. The 8th grade team worked under Coach Stan Dellenger.

7th Grade Basketball athletes included Ben Benvenutti, Leo Casey, Donald Kimberlin, E.J. LeBlanc, Jeremy Lewis, Robert Martin, Zach Mellen, Kyle Mulford, San Tart, and Austin Tucker. Coach Stephen Cuevas led the 7th grade team.

Many said it would just be a season of survival. Afterall, this year's club appeared short, and even short on experience. But Coach Jay Ladner vowed to make it a season of victory and of growth for the1997-98 Varsity Rock-A-Chaws. Though the team suffered multiple injuries to its senior (and therefore more experienced) players, the Rocks remained undaunted. They reeled off 7 consecutive division wins to finish in a tie for 2nd place in division and, as a result, shocked the many nay-sayers who looked for a less-than impressive season from the Rocks. Coach Ladner commented that even though a 16-14 record may not appear to be a phenomenal season, it's still a winning one given the often insurmoutnable obstacles the boys' overcame. Congratulations to the Varsity Rocks for an outstanding display of determination!

It was a season of success for the 1997-98 Rock-A-Chaw golf team! Under the advisement of Mr. Matt Allman, the Varsity team brought victory to the Rocks as District Champions early in the spring. Then, in May, the Varsity team "rocked" the state of Mississippi when they placed Fourth in State competition out of twenty-eight teams state-wide. Andy Jacobson secured a low round during the tournament, finishing at four under par. Congratulations to the Varsity Rocks on a terrific season!

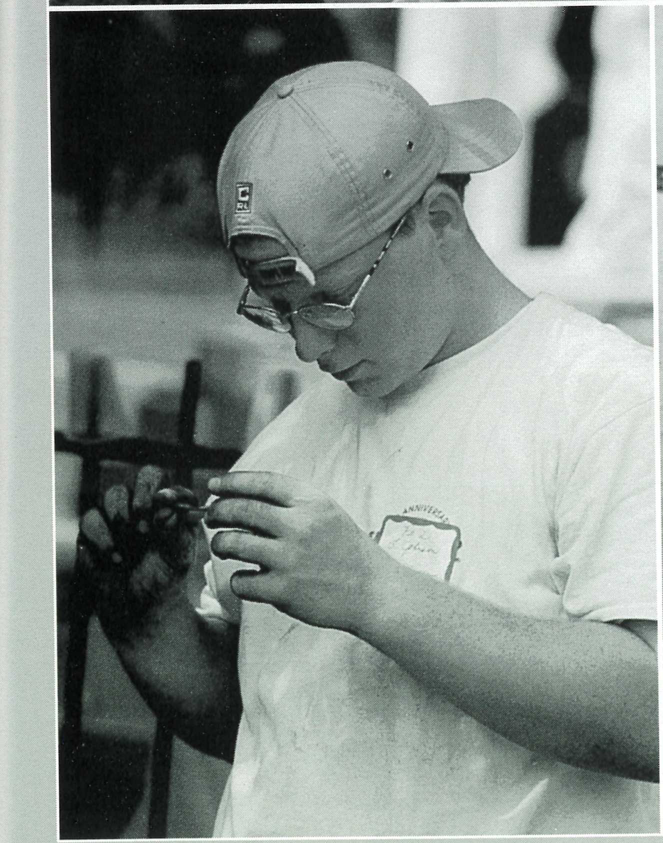
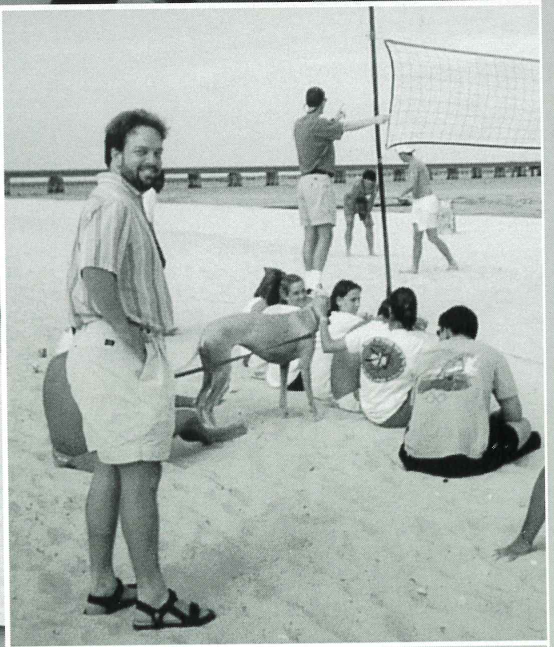
Activities





Student Council

The St. Stanislaus Student Council sponsors several events during the year that promote school spirit and encourage students' generosity. The Lenten Giving Fund, for example, provided students with an opportunity to donate to specific charities while focusing on Christ's presence in our lives. Thanksgiving baskets also reminded us of the importance of charity and of accomplishing tasks as a school. Similarly, the Back-to-School Beach Bash pictured here and at right, was a school-wide day of festivities aimed at welcoming the new year and each other back to SSC.

Yearbook Staff

Creating a yearbook requires the patience, expertise, and creativity of many people around campus. There is, however, only a small number that actually crops pictures to the correct size, places them onto a computer disk, and writes accompanying text. Pictured here are some of the steps we go through to bring you the book you now hold in your hands. Right: Ms. Preble and Eric Stoltz place pictures on the computer. Below: Eric Stoltz and Chris Estrade select the best pictures for the book. Bottom, Left: Chris Estrade and Reid Stone file stories and pictures for later use. Bottom, Right: Mr. Ackerman leaves to take more pictures.

CONGRATULATIONS!
DEREK

"In allowing God to direct your life, the things of this world lose it's importance, allowing that which is of God's to come in and give you everlasting substance."

Derek, God blessed us when he sent you to us. We still don't know all of the reasons why he gave us the chance to have the most wonderful son parents could have. We love you for so many reasons. The first being, we love the fact that you know that God is in control of your life. We love how you love others and not just yourself, how you respect yourself as well as others, how hard you try to do your best in all things, how you are proud, yet humble.

Derek, you have given us so much joy and excitement in all the years of sports (soccer, baseball, track, football, and basketball). In your future, we pray God will see you through college, a job that is wonderful, and a loving family. Seems like a lot? Well, with God all things are possible. Always ask yourself, 'Is this what Jesus would do?' If the answer is 'NO', then he certainly will be disappointed if you did it. We all have fallen short of the Glory of God, but, no matter what, he will always be there for you, and so will we.

Loving you forever,
Daddy, Mama, and Shalon

Congratulations Yosuke

We love you very much.

St. Stanislaus High School calls our book "Reflections" because we believe that no period of growth is complete without time set aside to review it. For it is often in our most quiet moments that God reveals the true meaning behind where we've been, what we've learned, who we've met, and how we "survived" the last year. This time can also call to mind special friends who have, in one way or another, assisted us while on our journey here at St. Stanislaus. So as I reflect back upon the production of Reflections '98, I am reminded of the generosity of some very wonderful people.

First, a thousand 'thankyous' to Mrs. Ann Holder, whose countless hours of identifying pictures should have earned her a spot on the Reflections payroll. How many times did I interrupt your work to ask, "Who's this?" and "Ms. Ann, do you know who he is?" You were always glad to help, and from the bottom of my heart, I thank you, Mrs. Holder.

Next, thanks to Fred Cherota for tracking down countless "tid bits" of information when I needed them "now" and for identifying your share of photos. You were always ready to cheerfuly assist with the needs of the yearbook, and I am so grateful for that.

Additionally, I need to say a special thanks to Brother Hingle and Brother Talbot for also identifying numerous pictures, as did Reid Stone, Greg Gordy, and Mr. Joe Amuso. A sincere thanks, too, to Mr. Todd Riche, who traded pictures with me and gave me important statistics on students.

A huge THANKYOU and a hug go to my two chief partners in crime, Eric Stoltz and Chris Estrade. Eric, your computer expertise and photographic talent will be hard to replace, to say nothing of your commitment to this "project." Thanks for all your hard work, your jokes, and for making the production of this year's book a fine experience. To Chris, who hung in there to the bitter end even in the summer, my undying gratitude. Your creativity, enthusiasm, and dedication were always there to remind me of why this book is so important. Your humor also kept me going till the end; I literally could not have finished without you.

And finally, to Tom Ackerman, who gave me total creative control without ever actually abandoning me, I say a most special thanks. You let me ease into this endeavor while gently urging me forward, and I have learned so much from you. Like Eric and Chris, you have been there from start to finish with me, knowing I could not possibly do everything on my own. The hours you spent taking pictures for the book are also enormously appreciated. That part of the job takes much time, and there are few short cuts there. In essence, you have been a good friend and invaluable mentor, and I thank you.

Students of St. Stanislaus, this is your book. I hope you enjoy the '98 Reflections now and for years to come.
